

Load Push

- The Load Pusher is an attachment equipped with standard forks and a powerful pushing face. For use with or without conventional pallets, the Pusher is often employed in ware-housing and railway operations where it is suitable for handling baled cotton, crated goods, stones, and other bulky materials. Used like a “bulldozer”, the pusher is useful for dumping stones and other materials into a lower-level storage bay or dump area.