

Load Stabilizer

- The Load Stabilizer consists of a top-mounted pressure plate with standard fork that prevents the accidental droppage of unstable or fragile loads while travelling over uneven surfaces. It also gives an added measure of safety when transporting bottled goods, precision instruments, or other fragile merchandise.